WEDNESDAY, AUG. 28, 1907.

The President and his War Secretary have each spoken and given to the people of the country the key note to the campaign of 1908. It seems quite sure that Sec'ty. Taft will be the leader and that the policy of the present administration will be adhered to. Great corporations are to be controlled, and if necessary to the end those who manage them when they violate the law shall be imprisoned while the corporation is to be fined. That smacks of "business." Defiance is still flung into the face of Wall Street and the navigation of Mr. Taft for an income tax is excellent.

The speeches are alright, but how about the speakers? They are each supporters of Republican principles and after all, our woes, as a people, have their origin in a "rot be tariff." Get rid of that enormity gentlemen, and then come to us with polite phrases and promises of better things. Clear the source and we may hope for a pure stream.

Azur's biography, as given in the Bible is a brief one, but here is his prayer which immortalizes him. "Remove far from me vanity and lies, give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me lest I be full and deny thee, and say 'who is the Lord?' or lest I be poor and steal, and take the name of my God in vain." Next to the Lord's Prayer that's the most perfect model as given in the word of God. Millionaires are not happy, nor are paupers, but the people who laugh and sing as they go through life are those who have "food convenient for them" and are neither rich nor poor.

What is wrong with Pine Beach that the local authorities, those of Norfolk and of the Exposition can't maintain order there? And this reminds us to ask who are the folks that insist on playing baseball on Sunday in the vicinity of Norfolk? This must be an element that was washed in on the Exposition wave, and should be taught that when in Virginia they should do as Virginians do, and Virginians are not Sunday baseball players. The crooks at Ocean View and Pine Beach must be moved out.

The A. C. L. has discharged all its negro firemen, brakemen etc This will be done the country over and in due time the departments at Washington will be cleaned of them and so the army and navy. The negroes are responsible for all this and if they don't like it they'll have to go to Liberia or some other "escapor." This is white man's government and they are going to govern it red men, yellow men, black men to the contrary notwithstanding.

The railroad situation in Alabama isn't yet settled, Injunctions are yet unquashed and friction abounds. Unrest in telegraph circles the country over while the military parade the stre ts of old Onancock, generally the home of peace and quiet. And all this in view of the fact that the Hague Conference is in session.

Governor Vardaman has been offered $7,500 a year to edit a paper Better than than going to the Senate. He can write so many spiteful things of the Senators.

Let Virginia officials be a little modest with reference to their heroism (?) on their rate bill question. The sister south of us wears the plume and all we can do is to say "first at Bethel" again, and follow her splendid example.

Army officers are demanding the re-establishment of the canteen, and this that the W. C. T. U. will be around and about Congress next session in full force. The army officers ought to know what is best, but maybe their tastes incline them in the wrong direction.

"Men never is, but always to be blest." The Louisa Democrats demand in strong terms that Commissioners of the Revenue be elected by popular vote again, but that judicial primary in Newport News has stirred a hornet's nest.

Fiery Foraker is'nt throwing out sops quets at Secretary Taft as he starts on his world-encircling trip nor is he saying pleasant things of the administration.

We have tried the Democratic Republican and he is a failure. Don't let's try the Democratic Prohibitionist. One thing or "tother." Either flesh, fish or fowl.

Gov. Hughes' baby is to be called Elizabeth. No doubt he hopes there may be another Elizabeth in the White House. Never another such queen.

Secretary Taft is still encircling the globe. Maybe that's where he gets his rotundity from.

Fore's Store.

After a few week's absence I'll relate a few of our latest happenings.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Bruner, of Richmond, returned to their home last Saturday after a pleasant visit to their cousin's, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Davidson, of this place. Their two oldest sons are also the guest of their cousin, Mr. David Davidson.

Mrs. Net Parrish, of Lynchburg, returned to her home today after visiting friends and relatives for a few days. We wish her stay could have been longer with us.

We were sorry to learn of the illness of Mrs. Eddie Tweedy, and we hope she may soon be well. Her daughter, Miss Myra, was visiting relatives here at the time and was sent for to come at once as her mother was very ill. We were sorry she could not have her visit out.

Mr. Dan Wooldridge, of Roanoke, is the guest of his parents this week. We are glad to see him looking so well. He expects to accompany his mother, Mrs. E. C. Wooldridge, to Richmond to visit her daughter-, ere his return to Roanoke. We wish them a pleasant visit.

Mr. Floyd Agee, of West Virginia, will visit his parents to-day, Mr and Mrs. M. E. Agee. He has been for the last week visiting the Exposition, and friends in Cumberland and Farmville.

Miss Florrie Agee returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Farmville Saturday.

Mr. William Lewis will visit the Exposition this week. We wish Boss a pleasant time.

We are sorry to hear of the continued illness of Mrs. Fred Frank, and do hope she may soon recover.

Miss Kate Mason expects to visit friends and relatives in Lynchburg in the near future.

What has become of our Hollywood correspondent? We would like to hear from him

Quite a number of our people attended the Camp Meeting in Buckingham Sunday, and report a meeting with a large congregation.

The Judge Lusc Forceful Language.

Judge W. F. Simms, of Fincastle, Va., said the following about L. & M. Paint was used on the roof of a house of his in 1882, and the roof will not need painting for 15 years; for the next 7 or 8, or that 3 years ago he was induced to use some other paint and is sorry he did, because the other paint didn't wear worth a cent. In fact he will now always use L. & M., because he knows; and do not claim it for nothing. He is honest in his opinion for nothing.

Read the advertisement of the Appomattox Warehouse in this issue. Sale of primings will begin on Saturday, September 7th and will be conducted three days in the week —on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, until the opening of the regular tobacco market.

Last Saturday the Forest Chapel Sunday School held their annual Picnic and Children' Day. The program began at 10 o'clock a. m. and the speaking was well arranged. At 12 o'clock a bountiful dinner was spread and it was enjoyed by all, after which Rev. P. T. Warren delivered an address and presented the children with candy.

On Sunday night at Pamplin City in the Baptist Church a horrible disaster was narrowly averted. Rev. Mr. Binford was assisting Rev. Mr. Cook in a series of meetings and large crowds attended. The church has a gallery which is set aside for colored people and this was packed also. A crash was heard and about fifty people became panic stricken and made a rush for the door. The galler had slipped six inches and fifty people would have been caught under it had it dropped. The house will be repaired and the people are thankful that they escaped the horrors of a crash and a panic which always follows such things.

The Southern Tobacconist Under New Ownership.

The Southern Tobacconist and Modern Farmer has been purchased by some business men of Richmond, with ample capital to make this journal a handsomely illustrated monthly magazine, devoted to agriculture. There will be a special October number, attractively illustrated. Of the old force, J. M. Bell, who for several years has been connected with the paper, will be retained as editor and business manager, with Guy W. Eskridge, of North Carolina, as advertising and circulation manager.

A change in the name of the paper is now being contemplated to a more simple and appropriate one, clearly defining the lines along which in the future it will be conducted.

Bent Creek.

Some time has elapsed since I last wrote for your paper so I'll try and send some items.

Farm work is progressing in the same old way. The wheat crop through this section was fairly good, and corn and tobacco are looking fine. There is lots of complaint about tobacco worms this year and sprouts are plentiful, which keeps the farmers busy most of the time. Notwithstanding all that there never has been as many farmers engaged in the tie business as now.

Our popular ferry-man, Mr. J. S. Burks, is just recovering from a spell of sickness. His substitute has been kept busy for some time past at the ferry.

There is not much fruit in this section owing to the late spring. There will now be enough to start a distillery, which the writer thinks is a good thing.

Quite a number of persons have gone from this place to the Jamestown Exposition. They all report a pleasant time.

Mr. J. W. Beal took a flying trip to Lynchburg and other places of interest last week.

And now, Mr. Editor, I'll soon close but let me ask where is the road machine? The roads in this section are in a fearful condition; I am sure they were never so bad before. If the writer had anything to do with making the law it wouldn't be long before we would have a bill before Congress to make saw-mill men work the roads they drive over and keep them in order or else pay a special road tax.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Brown will visit her old home this week.

Mrs. Blanch Waldron, of Richmond, has returned to her home after a pleasant visit to her brother. Mr. Kirby Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Marks, who have been visiting friends in Appomattox, returned to their home in Lynchburg last Thursday.

Miss Ruth Turner and sisters have returned to Lynchburg after a pleasant visit to friends and relatives here.

Miss Sue Beal, of Scottsville, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. T. J. Goodwin returned home last Wednesday. Mrs. Goodwin went with her back for a short stay.

Mr. Tom Thornhill, of Kansas City, Mo., and Mr. Charley Thornhill, of Appomattox, are taking in the Exposition this week.

Mr. J. W. Dixon paid a flying visit to Elwa last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Ewers, of Lynchburg, were the guest of Mr. Alonzo Well last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kyle, of Richmond, are expected to spend this week at their old home.

Situated in Appomattox county, 4 miles from Appomattox Depot on N. & W. Railroad, 3 miles from Pamplin Depot. Terms easy.

Commissioner's Sale.

Pursuant to a decree of the Circuit Court of Appomattox County, rendered in November term, 1906 in the chancery suit of G. W. Wooldridge against Grant Rosser and Fannie Ranson, I will on the 15th day of September, 1907, in front of the Court House of the County of Appomattox, proceed to sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the following tracts of land, to-wit:

No. 13. 319 Acres. $1,000.
Two houses containing 3 and 4 rooms, worth $500; 150 acres in wood; 160 fruit trees; rolling land; 4 miles from station; produces good crops.

No. 9. 297 Acres. $1,000
Four-room house; water, small timber, four miles of Farmville; two miles of station; and is very close to the two preceding farms. Which make 1,000 acres for a settlement. These are the largest bargains in the State.

No. 107.—107 acres—$1,200. This farm lies 3 miles from Appomattox Depot; is well watered and is worth $40, 100 acres in timber, some fine white oak; some fruit; farm produces all crops; 2 good barns; corn crib and hen-house; nicely water; good community and would make a good home for any farmer.

No. 10. 525 Acres. $4,000
Fine old James River estate; 2 miles from railroad, 50 acres flat land, fruit; 7-room dwelling that out-houses; Powhatan County.

No. 138. 300 Acres. $2,000.
Six room house; 300 acres timber; some fine large white oak; smooth farm and runs up to within 60 rds. main street of Pamplin City, N. & W. Ry. It is a very cheap place for the money.

No. 107. 601 Acres. $3,600
Lies on both sides of main county road about 7 miles from railroad station; 200 acres timber, almost old growth. The land is good. Buildings gone to decay.

Price, $50.000—Will be sold in small tracts.

No. 2. This is an old James-River estate, situate five miles from Richmond, the former Confederate capital. The estate is in apple-production. The macadamized roads lead to the city. One of the best truck-farming and grazing farms in the State. New barn that will stall 240 head of cattle. Buildings cost over $12,000. Seventeen Horse-power engine, 25 Horse-power Boiler mounted on truck, 32 inch inserted tooth saw, 3 gauge. The mill is of the Farquahr type and is in good running order.

TERMS—Cash sufficient to pay off the bonds together with interest and cost, as to the residue on such terms as the said T. H. Bryant may prescribe.

This Month

Seven years ago we launched a strictly One Price Cash Clothing business. Our competitors, the bulk of whose business was done on credit with long profits, predicted about two years as the limit of our business existance.

Looking Backward

Only encourages us to look forward, and strive the harder to hold your trade, as we have gained it, by giving better values for cash than can possibly be offered on time.
